TULSA FARM SHOW RESCHEDULED TO FEBRUARY 25-27, 2021

November 22, 2020 (Tulsa, Oklahoma) – The 27th Tulsa Farm Show, previously scheduled for December 10-11-12, 2020, has been rescheduled to February 25-26-27, 2021, as a result of ongoing Covid-19 virus concerns.

This change in dates is in response to increasing concerns at the state and local level related to available hospital capacity and staffing for patient care and public safety related activities, as the number of positive cases has increased on recent weeks. Midwest Shows is currently working with the Tulsa Expo Square management, show exhibitors and sponsors, host hotel Marriott Tulsa Southern Hills and other partners to ensure a smooth transition to these new dates.

“We have been in discussions with our exhibitors, key stakeholders and event partners as cases have increased in recent weeks,” said John K. Riles, President of Midwest Shows. “We feel a shift to these new dates helps local officials focus on the near-term public safety concerns, and also positions us to host a higher quality event that better serves the areas farmers and ranchers. It has really been amazing to see how supportive and responsive people have been. We are grateful for their efforts and look forward to hosting the 27th Tulsa Farm Show in late February 2021.”

The 27th Annual Tulsa Farm Show will feature more than 300 exhibitors with the latest in agricultural and ranching equipment and services, along with live equipment demonstrations, and scholarship fundraising activities. The event is held at the River Spirit Expo at Tulsa’s Expo Square. Show hours are 9AM – 5PM on Thursday and Friday and 9AM to 4PM Saturday.
