Tulsa, Oklahoma – Tulsa is set to host the 30th Annual Tulsa Farm show December 7, 8, & 9, 2023. The annual event brings area farmers and ranchers to the SageNet Center at Expo Square to view the latest in agricultural & ranching technology. Show Sponsor, Oklahoma Farm Bureau, along with more than 300 exhibitors will feature thousands of agricultural products, ranching equipment, and services, making the Tulsa Farm Show one of the country's premier agricultural events and the largest show of its kind under one roof.

Show Manager, Scott Guttormson commented, "We are excited to be celebrating the 30 Annual Tulsa Farm Show this year! This is a great end of year event for area farmers and ranchers, and exhibitors are eager to get in front of customers. We are happy to have the support of the Oklahoma Farm Bureau again this year as the official show sponsor. And we are also excited to be adding seminars hosted by OSU Extension Services. It's going to be a great 30th Annual Tulsa Farm Show!"

Ag producers and ranchers from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Texas regularly make the Tulsa Farm Show part of their end-of-year activities. Attendees enjoy free admission and plenty of free on-site parking. The SageNet Center is the main expo facility at Tulsa's Expo Square, the area's premier event complex and host of the Tulsa State Fair. The facility is one of the largest and most versatile exhibit halls in the country, with over 350,000 square feet of available exhibit space. As one of the largest clear-span buildings in the world, it is well-suited for big equipment and large exhibits and provides easy access for exhibitors and attendees.

Great Events at the Show

In addition to exhibits, many events, demonstrations, competitions, performances, and prize drawings are popular attractions at the show. Renowned natural horse trainer, Craig Cameron, will provide daily horsemanship seminars and interact with attendees throughout the show. Craig's entertaining and interactive demonstrations have been a Tulsa Farm Show favorite for the past 28 years. Country singer, Rusty Rierson, will also be performing daily acoustic music sets each day of the show.

Livestock management is also a key focus of the show and cattle producers can see the new products put to the test in side-by-side demonstrations. Ten brands of cattle chutes will be demonstrated with live cattle and moderated by experienced livestock industry experts. The demos will occur twice daily in the southwest corner of the SageNet Center, adjacent to the Behlen Country exhibit.

Daily Prize Drawings

Prize drawings are always popular at the Tulsa Farm Show. A $1000 Showbucks drawing will be held at 1:00pm each day, sponsored by Can-Am. Attendees can register at the Can-Am exhibit and the winner must be present to win. Showbucks can be used as currency to purchase products and services from any farm show exhibitor.

In addition, long time show exhibitor and sponsor, Stewart Martin Equipment, will be giving away a new Kubota lawn mower and trailer package. Attendees can register throughout the show by visiting the Stewart Martin exhibit. The prize package winner will be announced on Big Country, 99.5 radio.

Additional details and a full event schedule can be found at www.TulsaFarmShow.com along with an interactive show floor plan, sponsored by Stewart Martin Equipment. The Tulsa Farm Show runs December 7, 8, & 9, 2023 at the SageNet Center (located at Expo Square, home of the Tulsa State Fair). Admission and parking are free.
