Contact:
Scott Guttormson, Show Manager
Midwest Shows Inc.
PO Box 737
Austin, MN 55912
(507) 437-7969
www.MidwestShows.com

FOR IMMMEDIATE RELEASE

33rd TULSA Farm Show
December 10-12, 2026
SageNet Center – Expo Square, Tulsa, OK

33rd Annual Tulsa Farm Show Returns December 10–12, 2026

Oklahoma Farm Bureau Sponsors Premier Agricultural Event Featuring More Than 330 Exhibitors, Live Horsemanship and Cattle Equipment Demonstrations, and Daily $1,000 ShowBucks Drawings.

Tulsa, Oklahoma – The 33rd Annual Tulsa Farm Show will return to Expo Square's SageNet Center December 10–12, 2026. One of the nation's largest indoor agricultural exhibitions, the three-day event will bring together farmers and ranchers from across the region to explore the latest in agricultural equipment, technology, products, and services. More than 330 exhibitors will showcase equipment and innovations for farming and ranching operations. Admission and parking are free.

“We're excited to welcome farmers and ranchers back to Tulsa for another outstanding show,” said Scott Guttormson, Show Manager. “With the continued support of Oklahoma Farm Bureau as our official show sponsor, we look forward to bringing together hundreds of exhibitors and thousands of attendees for three days of agricultural innovation, education, and entertainment.”

Farmers and ranchers from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Texas regularly attend the Tulsa Farm Show, making it an important end-of-year agricultural event for the region.

Horsemanship Seminars and Live Cattle Equipment Demonstrations

Renowned natural horsemanship trainer Craig Cameron will return to present daily horsemanship seminars and live demonstrations. A longtime favorite at the Tulsa Farm Show, Cameron has been sharing his expertise with attendees for more than 30 years.

Livestock producers can also attend live cattle equipment demonstrations featuring a variety of cattle chute brands. Supported by Behlen Country and moderated by experienced livestock industry professionals, these demonstrations will take place twice daily near the Behlen Country exhibit in the southwest corner of the SageNet Center.

Country singer Rusty Rierson will also return to perform daily acoustic music sets during the show.

Daily $1,000 ShowBucks Drawings

Attendees can register for a chance to win $1,000 in ShowBucks each day, courtesy of Can-Am. Drawings will take place daily at 1:00 PM, and winners must be present to win.

ShowBucks can be used as currency to purchase products and services from exhibitors at the show. Visitors can register for the drawings at the Can-Am exhibit.

Show Details

- Dates: December 10–12, 2026
- Location: SageNet Center at Expo Square, Tulsa, Oklahoma
- Hours:
  - Thursday, December 10: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM
  - Friday, December 11: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM
  - Saturday, December 12: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM
- Admission and Parking: Free

For more information, including the complete event schedule, exhibitor information, and interactive floor plan sponsored by Stewart Martin Equipment, visit www.TulsaFarmShow.com.

For media inquiries, contact Scott Guttormson at Midwest Shows Inc., (507) 437-7969.

About Midwest Shows Inc.

The Tulsa Farm Show is produced by Midwest Shows Inc., a leading organizer of agricultural trade shows throughout the Midwest and Great Plains. The company produces six annual farm shows in Illinois, Iowa, Oklahoma, and South Dakota. For more information, visit www.MidwestShows.com.

###